Come For Coffee - Discover "Fun Reading Is Catching"

The APS-P-TA invites you for coffee and a tour of the reading methods used in the classroom on January 23rd at 9:15 a.m. Meet in the cafeteria. Come and catch "fun-reading."

JWC Invites Public To Hear Mrs. Giles C. Engledove

On January 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Appomattox County High School Auditorium, the Junior Woman's Club will have as its guest speaker Mrs. Giles C. Engledove past president of the Virginia Federation of Woman's Club and chairman of VFWC Bicentennial and American Heritage Division. The subject of her talk will be "Our Part in America's Birthday."

Mrs. Engledove is a native of Appomattox, a graduate of Appomattox High School, and attended Hollins College. She was the founding President, President's Council of Women's Club for the Richmond Area, now Honorary President. She is a past President of the Richmond Area Mental Health Association. She has served on the Boards of Directors of the Virginia Safety Association, Virginia State Association of Parlimentarians and Advisory Board, Juvenile Court of Richmond. Mrs. Engledove is listed in "Who's Who of American Women," "Virginia Lives," Dictionary of International Biography and "Community Leaders of America." She received a commendation from the President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, "In recognition for exceptional service to others, in the finest American tradition."

To celebrate our nation's Bicentennial and rekindle the wondrous "Spirit of '76," the Fenton Art Glass Company was commissioned by the General Federation of Women's Clubs to sculpture in glass a series of four exquisite collectors' plates which will in their entirety depict a complete and moving "Portrait of Liberty." On January 1, 1975, the third plate was officially issued. This plate, the third in the series of four, is now available! The moulds for these plates will be destroyed in a ceremony at Independence Hall on July 4, 1976. The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club will accept orders for plates on January 28. The cost of the 1975 plate is $10. Copies are still available for the 1973 and 1974 plates at a slight higher charge.
